

“If you’re like me, family and community are important to you. That’s why I like Bluegrass Community Bank...founded by people with deep roots in our community.”

— JACOB TAMME

During his career as a scholar-athlete, Jacob Tamme has always stood for high performance. What has impressed educators, coaches, and fans most has been his dedication to hard work, personal integrity, and follow-through.

Our team at Bluegrass Community Bank is pledged to the same level of excellence. With a strong lineup of banking services, a welcoming place to do business, and extended hours, we’re everything a hometown bank should be.
